

The Story of Ahikar

Ahikar (c. 7th century), translated by F. C. Conybeare (1856-1924) and J Rendel Harris (1852-1941) and Agnes Smith Lewis (1843-1926)

The Story of Ahikar is a fictional work. It is a colorful story but considered to be a work containing great wisdom. The story of Ahikar is considered one of the earliest “international books”. It can be found in a variety of geographical translations and has been circulated in the middle east and near east regions. – Summary by CJ Plogue
